One of the most famous street names in the world, Wall Street now encompasses the financial district of New York City. The business center is situated in a landmark building, located in the heart of this historical center and is just across the street from the New York Stock Exchange, the largest in the world. The business center has a recently renovated lobby and concierge. It is the financial center of the United States and the world and several other US exchanges have headquarters here including

NASDAQ. Manhattan is undergoing a period of major construction - the most well-known project is the building of the Freedom Tower - and continues to attract world-class companies. Although primarily a home to finance industries, it also provides the headquarters for many advertising, publishing, entertainment and technology companies, and is regarded as an international cultural and arts center.
